The New Secretary of War.

Very little is generally known of the new secretary of war. He is said to be a native of Pennsylvania, and now a resident of Washington, whence he was called to occupy the position of attorney general in the last days of Mr. Buchanan's administration. His friends represent him as a man of vigorous intellect, a great worker and a strong will. This is the kind of man wanted, if he will labor to put down the rebellion with all the means at hand. He is or was a democrat. This is no objection under present circumstances, if he discharges his duties well. We need a decisive and vigorous policy in this war, and such we hope Mr. Stanton will inaugurate. It is feared by some that he was appointed through the influence of the Kentuckians, and that he will adopt their ideas. But we shall soon know; until then let us hope for the best.

The Mississippi Expedition.

The expedition down the Mississippi river is now attracting general attention in the west. It consists of a naval fleet and land forces, and its first work will be the reduction of Columbus.

The fleet is composed of twelve gunboats, eleven of them carrying fifteen guns, and one, the Flag Ship Benton, eighteen guns. The eleven cost $89,000 each, and are entirely new and just completed. They are 175 feet in length, 5 1/2 feet beam, and draw 5 feet water, when loaded. The sides are covered with plates of the best charcoal iron, two and a half inches in thickness, and securely bolted together and to the woodwork within. The sides incline inward at an angle of about 45 degrees, so as to turn or "glance off" a missile; the bottom has the same inclination toward the keel. Each boat carries five 63 pound Columbiads at each side, three rifled guns at the bow and two at the stern. The guns and gunners are protected by casemates rising seven feet from the deck, composed of heavy timber, plated with iron.

In addition to these are thirty-eight mortar-boats or bomb-ketches, and twenty-eight tug-boats and steamboats for transportation of troops and towing of mortar-boats.

The magnitude of the preparations may, to some extent be inferred when it is known that the salaries of the officers reach the amount of $60,000 per month—that 500,000 bushels of coal have been contracted for and delivered at Cairo—that clothing to the amount of $40,000 has been contracted for and is on its way thither—that 800 tons of powder have been sent to Cairo, and other war material beyond all computation. The flag ship Benton is represented to be one of the finest and most formidable specimens of naval architecture afloat; 186 feet long, 75 feet wide, sheathed with two and a half inch plating, and made as strong as possible with heavy oak timbers and plank. The guns are from 32-pounder to 42 pounder calibre.

The mortar-boats, thirty-eight in number, are built of heavy timbers; the sides, of boiler iron, loop-holed for musketry, are so arranged that they can be used as bridges, and they will carry one of the heaviest mortars used in warfare. Small tug boats will be used to tow the mortar-boats into position.

A writer in a New York paper, from Cairo, states that "So confident are the naval officers in the strength of the gunboats that several of them have offered to take the Benton and lay her under the batteries at Columbus, confident that her immense strength will resist the heaviest metal in the possession of the confederates. The plates upon the gunboats were submitted to severe tests, and evinced almost fabulous invincibility. Heavy rifled shot were fired at them at a distance of only 160 yards, and in every case they were either only slightly indented, or else they shivered the shots into innumerable fragments or turned them harmlessly aside."

Nothing definite is known, at least to the public, of the defenses of Columbus, but it is thought that the guns of the confederates are not of as heavy calibre as ours, and that our gunners are infinitely superior in practice and skill.

The flag officer of the fleet is A. H. Foote of Connecticut. A majority of the other officers are southern men.

The land forces have made a forward movement, and a portion of them have doubtless, ere this, reached the rear of Columbus.

The troops under Gen. McClellan, in the advance, are the 10th, 18th, 27th, 29th, 30th, 41st and 43rd Illinois infantry, the 2d and 6th companies of the 4th Illinois cavalry, and Stewart's, O'Leary's, Carmichael's and Nolan's cavalry companies, and Schwartz's and Dresser's batteries.

The troops under Generals Grant and Paine are the 7th, 28th, 11th, 20th and 22d Illinois infantry, the 7th and two companies of the 1st Illinois cavalry, and Taylor's and Houghtaling's batteries.

Those under Gen. Smith are the 9th, 12th, 40th and 41st Illinois infantry, 11th and 23d Illinois, 8th Missouri, Hopkins, Willard's and Howell's batteries, 2d Illinois cavalry, Thielman's cavalry, and two companies of the 4th cavalry of regulars.

This gives a force of nineteen regiments of infantry, four regiments and two companies of cavalry, and seven batteries of artillery. Other troops, no doubt, are to be used on the transports, but what number and the names of the regiments, are not known. It is quite certain, from the letters from the 8th Wisconsin published to-day, that our boys will have a part in the contest.

Message of Ex-Governor Randall.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 6, 1862.

To the Honorable the Legislature of the State of Wisconsin.

At the close of the last session of the legislature, an act was passed entitled an "Act to provide for the defense of the state, and to aid in enforcing the laws and maintaining the authority of the federal government."

The act made it my duty, in case a call was made by the President of the United States upon this state, to aid in maintaining the Union, and the supremacy of the laws, or to suppress rebellion or insurrection, or to repel invasion within the United States, or to take measures in aid of the federal government, in the speediest and most efficient manner, for responding to such call. I was authorized to accept the services of volunteers for active service to be enrolled in companies and in regiments, and to commission officers for the same. I was also authorized to contract with responsible parties for uniforms for such of the volunteers as were not provided therewith, and for such other equipments as were necessary and proper for putting such companies in condition for active service. The sum of two hundred thousand dollars was appropriated "for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act, and to defray the expense of transporting troops, and of procuring and transporting arms and munitions of war, to be drawn on my warrant as occasion might require." For the expenditure of this money I was required to file vouchers in the office of the Secretary of State, and to make report to the (then) next legislature.

I now make the report, and upon its presentation the vouchers will be found filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

The sum of two thousand five hundred dollars was, by the act above referred to, appropriated to the Governor of the state for his contingent expenses, as commander-in-chief; to be drawn on his warrant, as occasion might require, at his discretion.

To reimburse the treasury, bonds of one thousand dollars each, to the number of two hundred, were authorized to be issued by the Governor and sold by him at not less than their par value; the money arising from the sale of such bonds to be deposited with the state treasurer, and to be used only for the purposes contemplated by the act. Only thirteen of these bonds have been sold, the balance remaining in the treasury. Upon the thirteen bonds sold, was realized the sum of thirteen thousand seven dollars and fifty cents, which sum was paid into the treasury of the state.

Of the sum of two hundred thousand dollars so appropriated, a balance of four thousand two hundred and twelve dollars and four cents remains undrawn in the treasury. The accompanying statement, marked "A," shows the amount of this fund drawn by me and for what purposes, except that portion drawn on my warrants for the paymaster general, quartermaster general and commissary general, which did not pass through my hands, and which is accounted for by them respectively.

Of the sum of $45,000 drawn by me and for the discharge of which an act was passed, charging the sum of seventeen thousand, seven hundred and forty-two dollars and forty cents was drawn in account of James H. Hutton, Esq., Asst. G. M. General in Milwaukee, and accounted for by him. $17,740 40
On account of troops at Camp Randall and detached on expeditions, $1,000 00
Cash paid for purchase of arms, $3,800 00
Cash paid for purchase of arms, $3,800 00
Cash advanced to J. R. Wadsworth, commissary general, and accounted for by him. $200 00

The balance of twelve thousand and seventy-seven dollars is fully accounted for in the exhibit marked "A," above referred to, with the vouchers on file awaiting inspection. The item of $221 50 paid to J. W. Pulleys for services and expenses, is more properly chargeable to the appropriation of the $10,000 extraordinary expenditure fund used at the extra session of the legislature, although it makes no difference with the gross amount of the expenditures.

At the extra session of the legislature in May last, in order to meet public exigencies, an act appropriating $1,000,000 was passed, and bonds authorized to be issued for that amount, and to be sold by the governor, secretary of state, and state treasurer—the money realized upon such sale to be paid into the state treasury. There remains unsold of these bonds, about $85,000, as I am informed by the state treasurer. The law provided that this money should be drawn upon the warrants of the secretary of state, in favor of the paymaster, upon monthly estimates made and certified by the paymaster and governor, and filed with the secretary of state, of moneys due to the state troops, and other necessary expenses required to be paid for military purposes, and for the provisions of the act, not including amounts necessary for the purchase of arms and munitions of war.

With the disbursement of this money, with the exception of $10,000 specifically appropriated, I had nothing to do. An act approved May 25th, 1861, provides as follows: "The governor is hereby authorized and empowered to employ such aides, clerks and messengers as the public interest may require, and allow them such reasonable compensation for their services and expenses as in his judgment they shall be entitled to receive; and on the requisition of the governor, the secretary of state shall draw his warrant on the treasury for the amount so required by the governor, to be paid out of the war fund; not to exceed in the aggregate $10,000."

The accompanying statement marked "B," shows to whom this money was paid, and for what purposes. The receipts, certificates and vouchers are on file for examination, with the reports of agents to whom any considerable sums were entrusted, showing in detail the manner and objects of the expenditures.

I invite a careful and candid scrutiny of the disposition of this fund, and desire that each of the persons employed be summoned before your committees of investigation, to testify as to the agencies in which they were employed, and the purposes of those agencies; as to the moneys entrusted to them, and what they did with such moneys. These agents are all, or nearly all, within reach, and will most readily respond to such a call. I ask them that their testimony be published with this report, with either the approval or condemnation of the legislature. I ask this as an act of justice to myself, because the disposition of some portion of a full money has been condemned, without a full knowledge of the manner in which the people of this state, with a full knowledge of all the facts, to pass judgment upon it. W. H. Watson, Esq., who has been my private secretary, and who is the private secretary of Gov. Harvey, will at all times give any information or explanation. Many of the men employed are among the most respectable and responsible men in the state, and I believe they have all been honest and faithful in the discharge of their trusts.

It is due to the legislature, and to the people that I make some explanation—not excuses—for the manner in which the public business has been conducted by myself, and by those in subordinate departments under my direction.

When this war broke out, and the state was called upon by the president for aid, there were no military forces in the state organized and liable to be called upon for actual service. The few arms which had been distributed to the state by the federal government were scattered over the state. We had no military organization, and so far as was known to the authorities, no experienced military men in the state. For three successive years I had asked the legislature to provide for some kind of an organization, to the end that, although not a military people, there might be some military education in the state. The legislature judged this to be unnecessary, and it was not done. The state authorities were suddenly called upon to organize and equip large military forces for active service. The general government had issued no specific instructions as to the manner in which this work was to be done. We had no system, and no constant, under difficulties and embarrassments, at a great distance from the seat of government. While supporting large bodies of men, to save time was to save money. My experience was like the experience of the executives of other states, and like them I was compelled to send messengers frequently to Washington. It was the surest, the quickest and only effectual mode of transacting any important business with the departments. The experience of Treasurer Hastings and others will bear this witness.

I judged this the best course to take, and adopted it. What was effected by these messengers proved that I acted wisely. A part of the ten thousand dollars was appropriated for this purpose, and so used.

The insufficient accommodations for transporting large bodies of men and large military stores, except upon the direct lines of railroads, and the want of experience in the care of soldiers, both well and sick, induced me to adopt the plan of sending with our regiments, agents, whose business it should be to see that our neighbors who had volunteered to fight for us, should not suffer for want of care, in case of accident or sickness. The precaution, was a wise one, if it is wise or right to take care of sick and suffering men. While some of our regiments reached the seat of war without accident and without serious sickness, and so requiring no special attentions or expense, some of the soldiers were left on the way, and but for the care and attendance of these agents would have died. The sick soldiers left at Elmira and Harrisburg and Baltimore, who were cooked for and washed and attended upon day after day, and night after night, by Sanders, and Harbison, and Hill, and others, and the sick men brought home to their families, would have died, had it not been for the care of these agents, who expended, and more. While all the agents may not have been well chosen, I conceived the course a wise one. It was for such purposes that other portions of the ten thousand dollars were used. This course has been adopted by many of the other states, and has received not only the commendation of the authorities of those states, but the commendation of the secretary of war, who complimented Wisconsin for inaugurating the system, and for the interest for the welfare of her soldiers. My only regret is that I had so little means at my command to devote to such large amounts of care, and that the state government property have been taken care of by these agents, which otherwise would have been lost or destroyed, in value far greater than the amount expended. The policy ought to be continued.

The legislature, when the first call was made upon the state for aid, did not anticipate what has since followed. It was supposed that not more than six or eight regiments would be required from the state, and made provision only for that, while nearly if not quite twenty thousand have been mustered into the United States service. It is the opinion of the committee, however, that the Wisconsin regiments have gone, and along the routes over which they have passed, that no better troops can be found, and that none have been better uniformed and equipped, or provided for, than those from this state, and I believe that the closest examination will show that, in the paymaster's and quartermaster's and commissary's departments, every effort has been made to save the state expense and loss.

Many expenses have been incurred not authorized by army regulations, because, for a long time, we did not know what the army regulations were. Some expenses have been incurred, and money paid, by the paymaster, quartermaster, and commissary, that I knew were not according to army regulations, under my direction, because I did not wish to see our soldiers, unused to the hardships of camp life, and going from comfortable and pleasant homes, suffer or die according to strict military rule.

These soldiers help pay the expenses as well as fight the battles, and I have directed a few newspapers to be sent to each company in camp. To provide against necessity or accident, a few extra blankets, and a few extra pairs of shoes, and a few extra pairs of socks have been sent forward with each regiment.

I have audited and ordered paid some small bills of officers, made under misunderstanding of army rules, and have paid some small bills for injuries done to the property of citizens by bands of soldiers rather than have regiments delayed at the expense of hundreds of dollars, growing out of threatened controversies. Knowing that soldiers who drill eight hours in the day cannot well perform much other labor, and to enable them to do so, I have sent as fast as possible, to the discipline and duty of soldiers, I have relieved them as far as possible from other labors in camp, and endeavored to make them forget their privations by supplying their wants. If more means had been at my disposal I should have expended more upon them.

As required by law, I fixed the compensation of the quartermaster, paymaster, inspector general, adjutant general, commissary general, their assistants and clerks. After seeing the great amount of labor they performed, and the pay adopted in other states, and upon consultation with the United States assistant quartermaster, I increased their compensation, keeping within the rule prescribed by law for adopting the rule of paying men for well doing what their services are worth. These officers all desire that the legislature should investigate their acts.

The policy of experimenting with soldiers, to ascertain how little they can live upon, or how hard fare, and how extreme privations they can endure, and escape sickness or death, in the policy of all armies, and its result has been, with all armies, and in all nations, that more men die in camp than are slain in battle. I believe this is the case, and that the policy is wrong, and that therefore, that course which will most husband the strength and preserve the health of the soldier, until they day of battle, is the wisest and best.

ALICE W. RANDALL.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.

SENATE.—Mr. Wilson, of Massachusetts, from the military committee, reported back the bill to increase the clerical force of the war department and bureau.

Mr. Critchfield, of Iowa, moved to amend so as to add four clerks to the navy department. This was agreed to and the bill passed.

The Kansas contested seat came up. Mr. Stanton proceeded to speak at length. Mr. Stanton said before he accepted the senatorship from the governor of Kansas he telegraphed the secretary of war to know if Lane had been appointed brigadier general, and had accepted; and that he received the reply that Gen. Lane had been appointed and had accepted.

Mr. Harlan, of Iowa, thought the president had no authority to make the appointment at that time. There was no such office.

Mr. Cowan, of Pennsylvania, took the same ground.

Mr. Trumbull, from the judiciary committee, to whom were referred the numerous bills in reference to the confiscation of the property of rebels, &c., reported them all back, with one original bill as a substitute for the whole, namely, to confiscate the property and free the slaves of rebels.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DESPATCHES.

New York, Jan. 16.

The brig Mountain Eagle has arrived here, and reports the British steamer Gladstone, with the traitors Mason and Slidell on board, arrived at St. George, Bermuda, on the 9th inst., and sailed for St. Thomas on the 10th, whence the two rebels would take passage for England. The steamer Gladstone, of the 9th inst., reported on the afternoon of the 12th passed Burnside's expedition this side of Hatteras.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.

Tribune's Correspondence.—The joint resolution of the legislature of New York, in relation to the reciprocity treaty with British provinces, which was referred to the house committee of commerce, is committed to Gen. Ward, who has prepared a report. An extension of the features of reciprocity will be recommended, and the removal of the restrictive discriminations which render the operation of the treaty unequal and disadvantageous to the United States. The committee will also recommend the extension of extending commercial relations with other nations on this continent.

The house military committee, at their meeting this morning, authorized Mr. Olin to report a bill reducing the number of chaplains to one to each brigade, and establishing hospital chaplains. This reduction has been asked for by many chaplains and clergymen as well as hosts of officers.

The committee on the proposed national army west of the Alleghenies has met a sufficient number of times to learn that its members disagree so thoroughly that it will be impossible to secure a compromise of any kind. Probably the committee will recommend that three commissioners be appointed by the President to select a site.

The nomination of Charles H. Foster as marshal of North Carolina was rejected, yesterday, by the senate. Gen. Sigel is strongly pressed for a major generalship by senators and representatives for the Northwest. Chicago, through Mr. Arnold, particularly urges his appointment.

Times dispatch.—The committee on the conduct of the war have resolved to advise the immediate passage of a bill to punish with death any person who commits a fraud upon the government, whereby a soldier is being injured, as for instance, in the sale of arduous provisions; also to punish with imprisonment and confiscation of all property and government dues, all contractors who in any way defraud the government in the quality of goods sold and services rendered to be rendered to the government.

Senator Sherman, from the committee appointed to examine and report as to the compensation of all officers of the government, in relation to printing for the government. This bill provides that any paper printed under the superintendence of the public printer, to be entitled the Congressional Record; to contain the debates and proceedings of each house in the form and style of the Daily Globe. The number of reporters of each house to have their compensation, their mode of selection and duration in office to be fixed by each house respectively. The bill also provides that the engraving, lithographing and binding may be under the same provisions. Mr. Sherman intends to urge immediate action on this bill, as by its adoption the government will save nearly $1,000,000.

It is understood that a contract let out by Secretary Cameron for over a quarter of a million of rifles and carbines, will be ordered to be annulled by the congress. They will not be available in the present war, and as they are to cost an average of $7 each, above manufacturers' prices, they involve a loss of nearly $9,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.

World's Despatch.—Gen. Blenker appeared before the Van Wyck court, to-day, with regard to charges of corruption brought against him. It is understood that he explained them to the satisfaction of the court. The city is filled with rumors of Gen. Stone. It is even said that he is under arrest. The feeling against him is so strong he will probably be removed to some other field of action.

Dr. G. D. Bebe of Chicago has been appointed a brigade surgeon.

A Philadelphian who had been impressed into the rebel service in North Carolina came into Gen. Hancock's brigade, yesterday, from Centerville. He was on foot and armed with a Mississippi rifle. He occupied three days in making his way through the enemy's pickets and brings important information. The contested election case of Stanton against Lane is considered one of the most interesting that ever came before the Senate. Lane's right so his seat was confirmed by a vote of 24 to 16.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

FORTRESS MONROE, Jan. 16.

The remaining vessels of the Burnside expedition, which have been detained here by bad weather, left this forenoon.

The regular Thursday flag of truce took to Craney Island several passengers for the south. The boat brought back several prisoners, among them Lieut. H. Light of the Minnesota. Nine lay over to go north.

The only news in the southern papers is an exaggerated account of the affair between Humphrey Marshall and Col. Garfield, in which it is stated that the former was retreating when he was attacked. The fighting is said to have been very hot, and the rebels of course gained a victory with a small loss.

One hundred and sixty prisoners of war are expected here, to-morrow, to be exchanged and sent north. The governor, Richardson, arrived here yesterday, Texas, this morning. Her dates are Galveston, Dec. 28, Ship Island, Dec. 31, Mobile Bay, Dec. 31, Port Pickens, Jan. 2, Key West, Jan. 6, and Port Royal, Jan. 12.

Jan. 12. The gunboats St. Louis, New London and Water Witch, left Ship Island for Beloxie, Dec. 31. The result was not learned, but as the Rhode Island was leaving, the New London was seen retreating with three schooners in tow. The schooner of Vermont was captured off Galveston by the Rhode Island. She was bound from Point Island to Franklin, La., with a cargo of tin, copper, lead and wood, valued at $10,000. She was sent to Ship Island. The rebel steamer Florida is inside Horn Island.

The rebel batteries at Pensacola having repeatedly fired at our small vessels, Fort Pickens opened on the rebel steamer, which was loading stores at the navy yard, on the 1st of January. The rebel batteries responded, and firing was continued until evening. Fort Pickens firing the last shot.

The rebel guns were well aimed, and most of their shells burst inside our fort. Only one of our men, however, was wounded. One of our shots made a large breach in Fort Barrancas. In the evening our firing set Warrington on fire. The conflagration continued all night and the place was still burning on the evening of the 2d inst., when the Rhode Island left. The fire was seen at a distance of 35 miles at sea.

The Mount Vernon, which arrived here yesterday to coal, left her station off Wilmington, North Carolina, on the 12th inst. She encountered the storm of Tuesday. Saw a part of Burnside's fleet off Hatteras. The Mount Vernon reports that she burnt a light ship on New Year's night, which was being fitted out for a gunboat, under the guns of Fort Caswell. The rebel steamer Gordon is on the stocks for repairs of damages received in her encounter with the Mount Vernon in December.

New York, Jan. 17.

The Bermudian of January 8th, has the following paragraph: Her Britannic Majesty's steamer Racer arrived here from New York on Friday last. Her cargo was the 29th ult., and contained news of the highest importance. The American cabinet has acceded to the just demands of Great Britain, namely, the restoration to her protection of the four persons forcibly taken as prisoners from the steamer Trent. This decision must, we think, be hailed with satisfaction by all parties. We are thereby spared from the apprehension of the horrors of international war, and the Americans have shown their good sense in thus complying with the very moderate demands made of them.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.

House.—On motion of Mr. Fenton over one hundred bills from the court of claims were referred to the committee on claims.

Senate.—Mr. Chandler presented the credentials of Hon. Jacob M. Howard, Senator elect from Michigan, in place of Mr. Bingham, deceased. Mr. Howard appeared and took the oath.

Several petitions in favor of emancipation of slaves were presented. Mr. Trumbull presented the petition from Mr. C. L. Saylor, who represents himself as a contractor with Messrs. Cummings and Tucker. He says that he received information from the war department that they, Cummings and Tucker, were authorized to act, but is now surprised to learn that Mr. Cameron says that the leaders of the bureau made all the contracts. Mr. Sanford asks for the passage of a law to legalize contracts made so as to prevent loss to honest contractors. Referred.

The Markets.

New York, Jan. 17.

Flour quiet and steady. Sale of 3900 bbls. at 5.40, 5.55, superior western 5.75, 5.90, common to middling extra western. Wheat market very dull and prices slightly favor buyers. No sales of moment.

GEN. LANE'S EXPEDITION.—The people of Kansas are satisfied. A grand division, embodying all the volunteer forces of our state, and swelled by our brothers of the west, to the imposing army of 25,000 men, is to sweep down from our borders like an avalanche upon our enemies.

Lana, whose name is a spell to hush the frightened children of the south, commands the expedition. "I am the darling, the darling of the west, ranks as 'Chief of Cavalry,' and leads the 16,000 horse which form the flower of the division. Yesterday, men grouping the streets, with glad faces, congratulated each other that at last something here and now was to be done. Leave us to the future."

TWO BOYS DROWNED WHILE SKATING.—From the Columbus (Ohio) Journal we learn the particulars of a sad accident, resulting in the death of two interesting boys, aged respectively five and seven years, who were skating on the ice of a canal near Mr. McNary's of Columbus. "The little fellows had their dog, a fine Newfoundland pup, harnessed and hitched in their sled, and were at play together. They had just been called to prepare for school, when they concluded to take 'just one more ride'; and at the instance of some larger boy, were induced to go upon the ice of the river, near which they were at play. The ice broke under them and they went down together. Their Newfoundland playmate made most frantic efforts to save them. In the struggle he tore himself loose from his toy harness, and went catching a perfect channel through the ice to reach the body of his little master. A young man who witnessed the affair, plunged into the stream, and succeeded in recovering one of the boys, but not until life was extinct. Both were drowned."

THE KANSAS GOVERNORSHIP.—The governorship of Kansas is not in full tide before the supreme court of the state. At the instance of Mr. Crawford, the court has issued a mandamus requiring the state canvassers, (Robinson, etc.) to count up the votes for Crawford, which is the final step in the proceedings. Crawford will then show that out of 15,000 votes cast on the capital question, he received a clear majority. It is said that Gov. Robinson privately regards his case as hopeless, and is figuring for the United States senatorship to succeed Lane. All the newspapers of Kansas, except one or two are down on Robinson.

THE SLAVE MILITARY QUESTION.—There was an acrimonious debate in the Senate yesterday, on a joint resolution to promote the efficiency of the troops serving in Kansas. It provides that, commanders of forces there shall be authorized to enlist all persons who offer themselves, when the army is marching through the Indian or surrounding territory. The design is to give Gen. Jim Lane full power to conduct his proposed campaign on the western frontier according to his own notions as regards the arming and disposition of slaves.

The resolution has passed the House, but it sticks in the Senate, where the "conservatives" oppose it on the ground that it will operate unfavorably upon southern union men, inasmuch as its adoption will indicate that the government will have sanctioned the policy of arming the slaves.

We have some doubt as to its passing the Senate, and even if it does, it is possible that the President may veto it. Chicago Journal.

Recent reconnaissances and reports from deserters establish the fact that the rebel position at Centerville, where they have taken up winter quarters, is defended by twenty-six forts, armed with rifled and other excellent guns.

From the Eighth Regiment.

CAMP CURTIS, Sulphur Springs, Mo., January 14th, 1862.

Messrs. Editors:—We got marching orders on Sunday morning for Cairo, struck camp at ten yesterday morning, and have been waiting since for boats to take us down. The weather is quite cold and the river is full of ice. A large steamer passed here last night with the 65th Illinois on board, and another with eight batteries of guns. The Continental lies broadside on a bar opposite here now, with the 7th Iowa on board. Our baggage lies all on the dock waiting for transportation. I think we will embark to-day for Cairo. Our colonel says we go to Island No. 1, below Cairo. There is great activity all along the lines here, and you can look for some great battle soon in the west.

The troops are all in fine spirits and anxious to move. The 11th Wisconsin takes our place on the bridges on the Iron Mountain railroad. I leave five men here in hospital. Andrew Blood of Janesville, is one; his father is here with him.

I received a box from Janesville, yesterday, for the camp, all right. My wife with the wives of several officers, left here on Sunday night for Wisconsin—all carrying more or less money for the families of volunteers in our regiment.

We got a part of our new uniforms on Sunday, and were paid off last week. The men all feel good, and are ready to make their mark somewhere south. Nothing new at present. Yours, &c.,

W. B. BRITTON,

Capt. Co. G, 8th Reg't W. V.

CAMP CURTIS, SULPHUR SPRINGS, Mo., Jan'y 14th, 1862.

EDITORS GAZETTE.

On the 12th, notice was received from headquarters to this regiment to be in readiness to leave yesterday for Cairo. We commenced packing up in the morning, and at the appointed time were all ready and anxious to leave.

It was the coldest day we have had this winter, the mercury being but a few degrees above zero. Snow fell all the forenoon. We waited all day in the terrible cold for the steamer that was to take us down the river, but she did not appear; so we were forced to make ourselves comfortable for the night. This morning we found the mammoth steamer Continental up the river stuck fast. The river is very low and the ice is very heavy; I think we have a poor chance of getting down to Cairo unless we go to St. Louis and take the railroad.

The health of our company is very good. We will have to leave four of our number in the hospital. Old Mr. Blood has been here for some days; he has failed in obtaining his son's discharge. Several of our boys have received woollen socks and other comforts from home. The soldier away from friends will not soon forget the tokens of remembrance from home.

Yours, etc., J. A. W.

Extra Copies.

Extra copies of our paper containing the muster rolls of the 13th regiment can be procured if the order is left with this evening.

Departure of the Regiment.

The Thirteenth Regiment takes its departure from this city to-morrow for Chicago, en route for Leavenworth, Kansas.

The men have been busily preparing for the journey for several days, and to-day there is a general leave-taking between them and their friends. As the regiment was mainly recruited in this county, a very large number of people are in town visiting the camp, and bidding the men good-bye.

They are ordered to break up camp to-morrow morning, precisely at nine o'clock, when the tents will be taken down, and with the baggage, transported to the depot; they expect to be on their way by ten o'clock in the forenoon.

The officers of the regiment, one and all, are of the best material, and have won the respect and esteem of our citizens, while in camp here. We have the utmost confidence that they will acquire themselves creditably in the field, and that they will take good care of our brave volunteers, whom they have in charge, will be well cared for on all occasions, not only as men but as brothers.

The regiment is, we believe, in every respect, well supplied with arms, clothing, camp equipment and every thing needful to make the men comfortable, and to prepare them for their arduous duties. It is intelligent, patriotic and manly, equal to any regiment sent from this state, and whenever opportunity occurs, will be found foremost among the defenders of the country. "God bless you, boys!" will rise from thousands of hearts and lips to-morrow, as the Thirteenth departs for the war.

County Board of Supervisors.

Mr. Hudson offered a resolution appropriating $800 to the sheriff on account of board of prisoners in the county jail, for the present year, to be drawn quarterly in advance. Adopted.

Mr. Pember offered a resolution instructing the superintendent of county poor to employ a chaplain at the burial of county paupers. Adopted.

Mr. Pember also offered a resolution instructing the superintendent of county poor to employ a female school teacher, for the children of paupers in the county poor house, at an expense not exceeding $2.00 per week, exclusive of board of teacher; the term of school to be left to the discretion of the superintendent. Adopted.

Mr. Carpenter offered a resolution instructing the sheriff to make a contract with Dr. A. S. Jones for medical attendance at the county jail, for the coming year, for $15. Adopted.

Mr. Carpenter offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

23, If said committee do not report during the present session, said committee will not be entitled to pay for any services as such committee.

The committee on miscellaneous accounts reported in favor of allowing bills to the amount of $15.95. Adopted.

Mr. Hudson, from the committee to whom was referred for revision the law providing relief for families of volunteers in military service, reported several amendments.

LAST NIGHT.—Mr. Maginley, the general manager of the theatrical company, has a benefit to-night. Aside from the satisfactory manner in which Mr. M. has conducted the business of the company, he is a good comedian, and will get his friends to-night in one of his best characters.

The last night will be a great benefit to him as well as complimentary to the company.

REMOVAL.—Messrs. Sloan, Patten and Bailey have removed their law office into Jackman and Smith's new block. They occupy rooms on the second floor, fronting on Main and Milwaukee streets, directly over O. J. Dearborn's Book Store. The location is a good one and the rooms as convenient and pleasant as any in the city.

The following articles were received by me from the ladies of Johnston for the use of the sick and needy soldiers from Wisconsin in Kansas.

J. M. BURGESS.

Ten comfortable and bedquits, 6 blankets, 9 pillows, 70 yards bandages, 1 bag of lint, 22 pairs socks, 43 towels, 18 lbs. dried fruit, 9 pairs pillow cases, 2 bed gowns, 9 pairs sheets, 3 pairs drawers, 18 shirts, 4 undershirts, a quantity of linen for bandages.
